Allan Block® Makes It Easy!

Every Allan Block is made from Durable high strength concrete. Unlike treated wood, Allan Blocks won't rot, decay or leach harmful chemicals into the ground.

Quality in every block.

Our “Collections” give you a choice of styles.

Choose the right block.

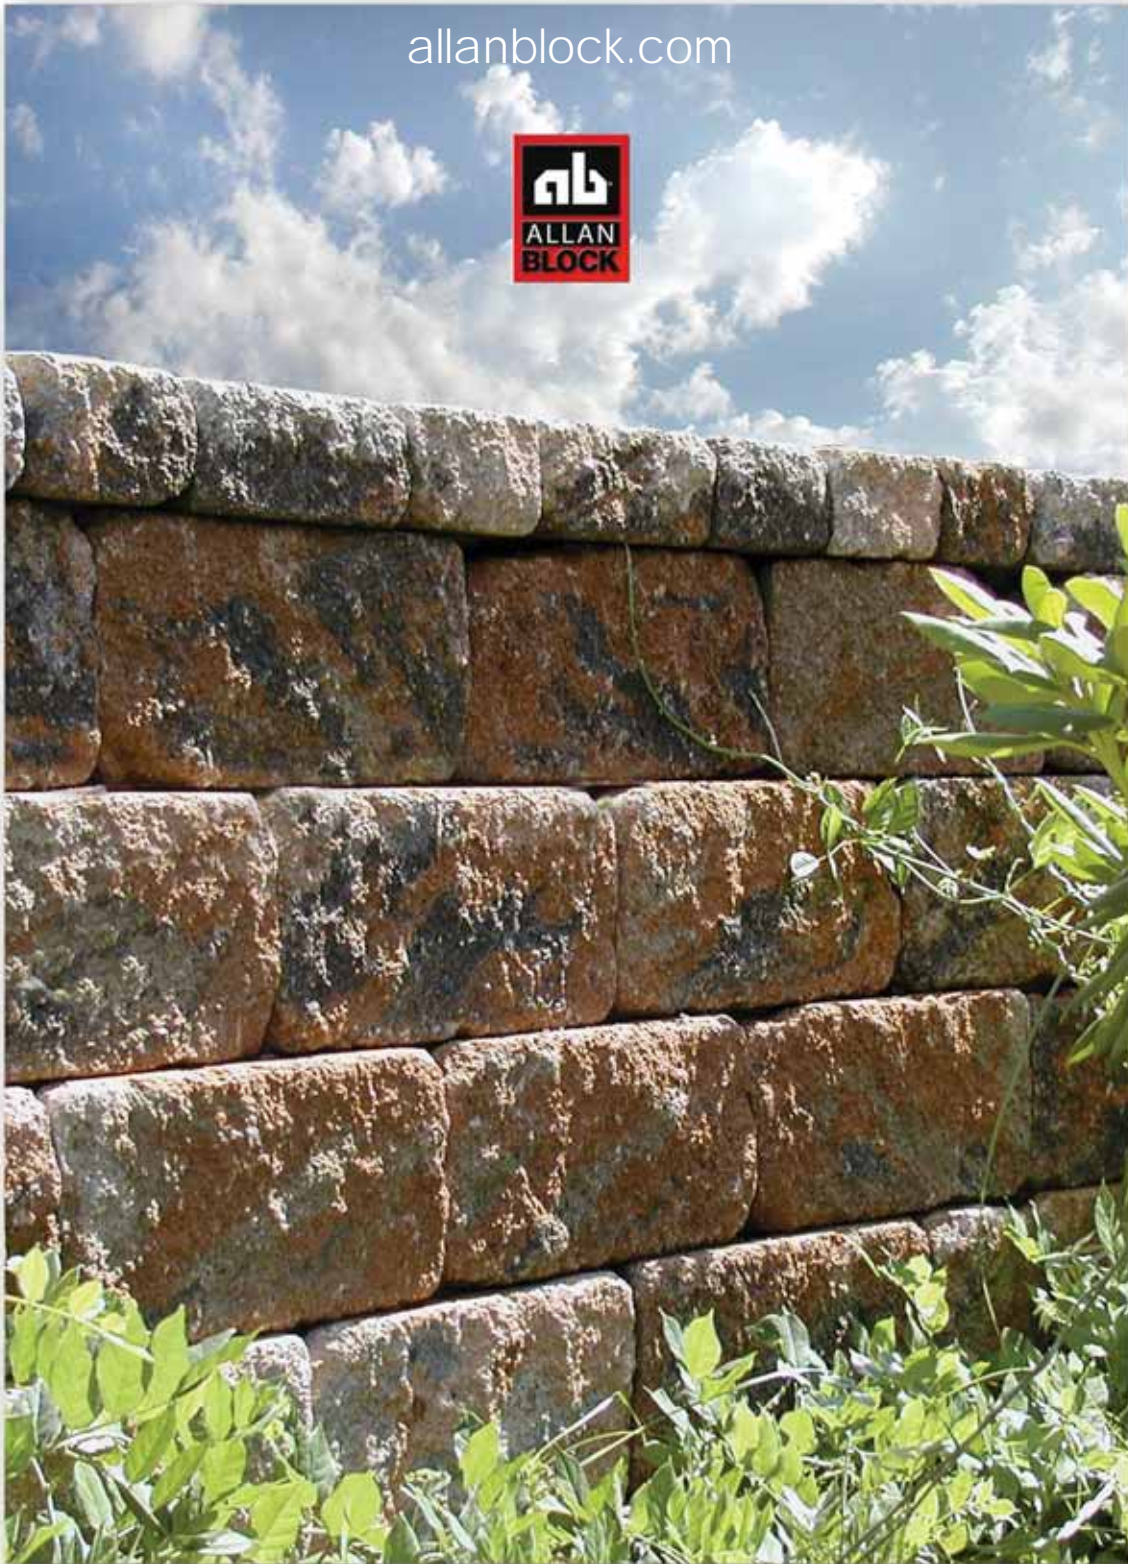

Allan Block units are available in a variety of different sizes, weights, setbacks and finishes to meet differing aesthetic and performance needs. Refer to the chart below or to our product sheets, to help make the right choice for your project.
